Property Description

This recently refurbished contemporary residence is set within a secure, gated community in Sierra Blanca, offering a refined blend of privacy, design, and functionality. The home features an open-plan layout defined by clean architectural lines, expansive glazed openings, and a calm, neutral palette combining natural stone, warm wood finishes, and soft textiles. The main living areas flow seamlessly onto a private terrace with swimming pool, creating an ideal indoor-outdoor connection for both everyday living and entertaining. A private rooftop solarium with open sea views and an integrated jacuzzi provides an elevated space for relaxation and social gatherings, while a private lift connects all floors, including direct access to the private garage, ensuring comfort and accessibility throughout. Residents also enjoy access to shared spa and gym facilities within this well-established community, perfectly positioned close to Marbella and the coast, making the property equally suited as a primary residence, second home, or high-quality investment.
